Shoalhaven is 2 hours from Sydney and Canberra airports with rail links into Bomaderry. Sussex Inlet is in the heart of Shoalhaven's surf coast.

WELCOME TO Shoalhaven

Shoalhaven has 50 towns and villages stretching from Berry and Kangaroo to Ulladulla and North Durras in the South.

There are 100 beautiful beaches, from calm inlets to epic surf breaks, you can explore them all and check them off on 100beachchallenge.com

In the heart of Shoalhaven is Jervis Bay with famous white sand beaches and crystal-clear waters. The tiny town of Huskisson just won Bronze in Australian Top Tourism Town awards and gold for NSW.

Average December temperature in Shoalhaven is 17 – 24 degrees and water temperatures sit at around 19 degrees. It's a beautiful time to visit the region and we hope you can stay a little longer before or after your event.

Call the visitor services team if you need hand with your planning 02 4421 0778.

Shoalhaven can't wait to welcome you!

STAY a little bit longer

Stay - book a few extra days and enjoy a pre-silly season vacay at off-peak summer rates. There are fantastic accommodation options from boutique hotels to glamping and cute cottages. Book direct with the operator for best prices.

Adventure - explore 100 beaches for a SUP, surf, swim with seals, canoe or kayak, or hike in the majestic escarpment, rock climb, mountain bike, or explore the inland rivers and wildlife.

Wellness - rejuvenate and reconnect with yourself, nature and those you love with yoga, Aboriginal cultural experiences, paddock to plate food, or post event saunas, massages, ice baths and float tanks.

Foodie - experience the ultimate food and wine adventure in Shoalhaven, the top NSW foodie destination that's bursting with flavour and passion. World class seafood and 8 cellar doors await.

Breweries and Distilleries - the South Coast is alive with breweries and distilleries, the coastal breeze feels just that little bit better with a crafted beverage in hand.

Family fun - enjoy a dolphin cruise, Shoalhaven Zoo, Treetops Adventure, Maritime museum, Fossil Walk and more, check out this custom family itinerary.
